Bell Canada To Spend $4,000,000 In Haliburton Area

HALIBURTON — Bell Canada will spend close to $4,000,000 in the Haliburton area over the next 24 months building a modern dial telephone system.

Stan Fisher, Bell Manager in Haliburton, said today long-range plans for improving service in the Highlands cottage country have been pushed ahead a full year. Mr. Fisher said extensions to the plant network are planned to take care of previously unserved areas.

Telephone exchange areas to get dial service include Gooderham, Haliburton, Minden, Wilberforce and West Guilford. The latter exchange now has a four-digit dial system which will be completely replaced.

Bell took over the last four exchanges January 1 from the Dysart Municipal Telephone System. Since then they have realized that to keep pace with this rapidly expanding area improved communications should be made available as soon as possible.

Included in the overall plan are provisions for dial service in Kinmount and Burnt River belonging to the Burnt River Telephone Company. Bell will take over this company and will improve facilities throughout the area.

The total project is scheduled for completion early in the summer of 1970. Improvements include new cable facilities, all new switching equipment and "extensive provision of facilities into unserved areas," according to a company spokesman.

Work will start in a few weeks when a 12-man engineering group moves in to Haliburton to begin design work on the system. A construction crew will be based in Haliburton and a supplies yard will be built there. The two crews will probably call the area home until the fall of 1969.

Trunk cable, wire, poles and other outside equipment will cost some $3,000,000. The rest will go for the crossbar switching equipment, dial phones, land and buildings.

The system will mean vastly improved service over an extensive area of small towns and villages, cottage country and tourist resorts. Surveying and forecasting studies are now being made to determine demand for phone service over the next five to 10 years.

Dial service where sufficient demand exists will also be available in these cottage areas: Kennisis Lake, Haliburton Lake, Harcourt Park (Straggle Lake), Halls Lake, Little Hawk Lake, Big Hawk Lake, Drag Lake, Eagle Lake and several other areas.

Bell will reduce the number of customers sharing rural lines, aiming for between four and six per line. Two-way local calling arrangements between adjacent exchanges now in effect will not be changed by the present project. However, it is expected that additional local calling will be offered to customers, in some exchanges following surveys and studies of calling patterns.

Logan At Haliburton

Last Saturday was Dave Logan Day in Haliburton. The Liberal Candidate for Victoria - Haliburton Riding in the forthcoming Federal Election was led into the village in an open air car by the Lindsay Kinsman Band. The parade formed at the Government Dock and made its way to the Main Street, with a swing around the village and ending up in the centre of the business section where a platform had been set up by the Haliburton Liberal Committee.

Prior to Mr. Logan's address, music was supplied by the Lindsay Kinsmen Band and Haliburton's own Quality of Mercy musical group.

The need for representation for this Riding at Ottawa by "someone willing to speak for Victoria - Haliburton in the House, and not just at election time" was stressed by Mr. Logan in his opening remarks.

National unity is the most important single issue in this campaign, Mr. Logan said.

Conservative policies, if implemented, could lead to the destruction of this country, he asserted.

He told his audience that rather than uniting Canada, the Progressive Conservative Party's platform could weaken it to the point of separation.

"There have seldom been such clear-cut differences between the three major parties". The Liberals stand for a strong, united Canada and believe strongly in one nation led by a strong government at Ottawa, while Mr. Stanfield is prepared to grant special status to Quebec. The speaker termed the NDP's stand on this issue "fuzzy".

In the evening Mr. Logan was present at a Liberal Dance held at Bonnie View Inn, which was attended by a crowd of over 200 people.

Pilot Among 4 Dead In Air Crash

GOGAMA, Ont. (CP) — Two Ontario men and two fishermen from Pennsylvania were killed when their light plane crashed into dense bush near this community 70 miles northwest of Sudbury.

Poline in Sudbury identified the pilot last Friday as Richard Grant Griffin, 31, of West Guilford, Ont. His passengers were Ivan Smith of Ancaster, Ont., Richard Polonski, 47, and Francis George Oliver, 34, both of Wilcox, Penn., U.S.A.

A police spokesman said the four-seater Cessna 180 apparently nose-dived into the ground last Thursday five minutes before it was to have landed at a resort on the shores of Deschenes Lake. It picked up the two American fishermen at Sand Lake, about 15 miles from the resort.

The bodies of the four men were taken to Sudbury by air-craft on Friday.

The Federal Transport Department has ordered an inquiry.

Powder Man Dies In Freak Mishap

MINDEN (ENS) — A freak accident electrocuted an Ottawa 'powder man' while he was rock blasting on road construction on Highway 35, 14 miles north of here last Thursday.

Giovanni Poli, 39, of 120 Morice St., Ottawa, was standing behind some pine trees and detonated a blast of rock 250 feet away. The blast jarred hydro wires to the ground where they crossed the detonator lead, sending a 7,200-volt through the detonator into Mr. Poli.

Mr. Poli was working for Keystone Construction of Ottawa on a 10-mile stretch of road which includes a number of rock-cuts.

The accident came ironically just one day after six Ontario labour organizations launched a joint campaign to improve safety in the construction industry.

Scott Speaks At Picnic

"If it weren't such a serious matter, the Liberal Party's belated wail for 'National Unity' would be laughable." So stated Victoria - Haliburton Progressive Conservative Candidate Bill Scott at Wilberforce on Sunday afternoon.

"I say this," he went on, "because you and I know that 'national disunity' was brought about by ineffectual Liberal Government handling of the French-Canadian problem."

"When was there ever so much talk of disunity in Canada as there has been during the Liberal's last term of office? You can answer that and so can I — never since Confederation!"

"In Progressive Conservative

Leader Robert Stanfield we have a man of reason . . . He is no dictator who says 'get in line or get out!' Mr. Stanfield is accustomed to dealing with people in a manner which begets co-operation and respect and he would employ these same methods in 're-uniting' Canada."

"As I see it," Mr. Scott concluded, "Canada's need is just that . . . 're-unification' . . . and this can best be achieved by dealing openly and fairly with all national problems and believe me they are by no means confined to the French-English situation. That problem was simply one which was grossly mishandled and gained subsequent wider publicity than some of the others created by government bungling."

Hodgson Welcomes Help Of County Council On Improving Highway 35

I appreciate very much receiving the letter offering assistance and continuing interest in Highway No. 35 from the County Council of Haliburton County. It has been my pleasant duty to have a great many meetings on the rebuilding of the road within their main interest with a great many citizens as well as staff of the Highways Department since 1963.

While there has been a large measure of different views on the location, design and property purchases for the reconstruction, most of this has been resolved by the good sense of our people.

Ten miles of high standard highway has been completed in the Dorset area, and at present nine miles of very expensive construction is underway starting in Hall's Lake area. This 19 miles will, when completed, have cost over 2½ million dollars.

Engineering by surveyors near Norland at the Boundary has proceeded on the 4.4 miles brushed out this past winter. This project will proceed to construction within the next few months.

Next January and February will find from Hall's Lake to Carnarvon right-of-way cleared as well as the section from Miner's Bay to the junction of Highway Nos. 35 and 121 south of Minden.

When I attend the coming meeting between the members of County Council and the Minister of Highways, it will be to support the wishes of all our citizens on the rebuilding of this road which I drive over and has a very great personal interest to me as a resident.

The last meeting between these people resulted in very adequate action on the Vankoughnet Road west of Carnarvon. I hope we can obtain this time a greater support for the programme on Highway No. 35 rebuild from the Department.

Pee Wees Need Coach

The Haliburton PeeWee Softball Club are still looking for a Coach, as they are entered in a league with teams from Snowdon and Minden.

Please get in touch with Mr. Wes Sawyer, Phone 111W, if you want to offer your help to coach them so these young lads will be able to play ball.

Clean Up Campaign News

The month of June is 'Clean-Up Month' in the village of Haliburton, and everyone seems to be getting behind the campaign. The following is a list of some of the things which have been done.

The Scout Hall has been painted and repaired, and more work on the building will be done when a work party is organized. Anyone willing to help on this project is asked to contact Mr. Walter Webb.

The Municipality is to be congratulated on the help they have given in levelling and the filling in of the Bannon property bordering Head Lake.

The Arena has been painted and the Park property has been landscaped.

The Haliburton Billiards has been painted, and Bishop Real Estate have done a fine job of renovating their office building on the Main Street with new windows, siding and paint.

The Public Library has been stuccoed and painted, and the Fire Department have done a wonderful job of washing down the Main Street.

Letters To The Editor

Box 287, Haliburton, Ont.,
June 19, 1968.

The Editor,
Haliburton County Echo,
Haliburton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my thanks to you and to your newspaper for the fine coverage you have extended to the "Invitation to Live" Crusade. No doubt our Chairman, Rev. J. E. Smith, will be writing further on this later.

As is our custom from past inter-church endeavours, the Executive Committee share a sense of responsibility to the community in general and not just to the church congregations. At the conclusion of the Crusade business a full, audited financial statement will be given to you for inclusion in your paper as a means of informing the public.

Regarding the financing of this Crusade I would like to emphasize that our budget was set by our own local committee. It is pretty well in line with past years. Our committee is appreciative of the fact that Rev. Patterson has demanded no minimum stipend.

Of course, the "Invitation to Live" Crusade is registered and under the close scrutiny of the Provincial Government as a society and under Federal Government control for income tax purposes.

As in the past the local committee is conducting itself in a businesslike manner.

Yours sincerely,

Noel McNeill,

Finance Chairman.

BILL'S BIG DAY

Father's Day, as I've said many a time, is a farce only exceeded by Mother's Day. Well, this year, it was even farcical than usual, around our place.

It all started with a couple of birds trying to kill two birds with one stone. My birthday arrived this year on a Sunday in June, and my wife and daughter were delighted to realize it was also Father's Day.

Usually, I do pretty well in June. First comes the birthday present, with cards and love and a pair of rubber waders, or something romantic like that, which I've been hinting about for a month, and which goes on my bill at the sports shop.

Then comes Father's Day, not long after, and the whole process is repeated, cards, love, a whiff of respect and some golf balls or other sentimental token which... (see previous paragraph).

I admit that it's a lot of nuisance for the family, but dammit, there should be one month in the year when a chap is compensated for growing older by picking up some loot he needs.

This year, the girls had it all figured out. They could avoid half of that sloppy nonsense of mucking about with cards, paper and ribbon, and trying to be decent to me until at least noon, and save money on the deal.

Well, I thought I'd go along with it, even though I knew I was being had. I not only had a bath, but went to church. This tied in perfectly with the whole theme, that it was not only birthday but also Father's Day.

Spurred by all the money she was saving, my wife even remembered to get her own father off a card and gift, a little late as usual, but sincerely felt, nonetheless.

Everything went according to schedule. Kim had stayed out later than I had suggested on Saturday night, and I gave her hell when she came in.

But when we got home from church, all was serene, thanks to forgiving, big-headed Bill. She said, tentatively, "Happy Birthday, Dad," and I said thanks, dear, and then I said "An how about a Father's Day hug to cement the deal?", and got one.

Then we had the ceremony. She went off and brought in the box, gaily wrapped, and with one of her own inimitable home-made cards on top.

It's a full sheet of paper, with "Happy Birthday, Dad" at the top, in fancy lettering. Below is a sketch, two figures. Bottom left is a stocky figure, resembling a porcupine, graying, but with a jaunty red cap and coat, and a swinging scarf.

He has a sad, wistful smile, and one arm extended toward a bluebird which is flying away from him. Beneath the bird, in fine letters, is the inscription, "I give you all my love".

That nearly broke me up. But I blinked back the tears and opened the package. There was a shoe-box inside. My heart sank. Stippers! Who wants them? Stocking feet are good enough for me.

It was a pair of golf shoes, which I've needed for two years, and planned to buy this year, even if the crops failed. I have mentioned them only about 12 times since Easter.

However, they're expensive, and only too well did I know that my usual birthday and Father's Day gifts would have cost me twice as much. So I gave the girls the old exactly-what-I-wanted and how-did-you-know routine.

Within half an hour, everything was back to normal, with my wife asking plaintively why I wasn't like other men, who like to pain, and my daughter trying to find out why I'm so square about drugs and psychedelics and the whole lot.

But revenge is sweet, and I had mine. That night, my wife's father phoned. She thought it was about his Father's Day card and gift and apologized because it was late. He hadn't got it and seemed a little mystified.

Her mother wasn't. Picking up the phone, she said, "Do you realize Father's Day is two weeks off, the third Sunday in June, not the first?"

And that, gentle reader, proves once again that guile is no match for goodness, and explains why I scored twice on gifts, as usual.

Minden Library Committee Meet

The Minden Library Committee had a short meeting at the Public Library on Monday, June 10.

Reports were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Moore, and the Librarian, Mrs. Sears. The Librarian reported on the Workshop of May 1, and told that there will be a service to sick and shut-ins within a radius of 10 miles of a Library with bags, stickers and other needs to be obtained by the County Office. This service could begin in September.

The circulation at this Branch since the increase in hours has been gratifying, as 1,029 books were signed out in April and 1,126 books in May.

The meeting adjourned until called by the Chairman.

BOOK REVIEWS

The Magic Pin (Juvenile Fiction), Viking Press, Ina Forbus. Did you ever wonder what happens when Nellie received a "magic" pin? She could talk to animals and birds. A good way to find out is to read this lower grade-level book.

The Scarlet Force (Juvenile Non-Fiction), Macmillan Toronto, T. Morris Longstreet. This is the first book of a series giving interesting details of the Mounties written with the romance of actual life. A good book for either young or old.

Fairway Challenge (Adult Fiction), Morrow, Jackson Scholz. This is the golfing story of Gary Connor when he met the professional star Sandy Miller, not only matching his skill but having to contend with Miller's mob. A book that keeps you interested all the way through.

Twelve Angels from Hell (Adult Non-Fiction), Revell, David Wilkerson. This gives more interesting cases investigated by David Wilkerson in his mission through Teen Challenge. A sequence to Cross and Switchblade. It truly solves many persons' troubles through the use of his great faith.

BILL SCOTT LIKES PEOPLE

BILL SCOTT, Progressive Conservative candidate for Victoria - Haliburton Riding in the June 25 election, just naturally likes people and no wonder . . . Bill's entire adult life has centered around working with, and helping people. Here he is seen with Mrs. Lillian Graham who gets her point across with the aid of a rolling pin. Familiar with the impact this traditional feminine weapon can make, Bill decided discretion was the better part of valor and accepted her respected advice with a smile.

Victoria - Haliburton Progressive Conservative Association

Scott Addresses Rally At Atherley

"The record of the Liberal Government in Canada is a sorry one indeed."

Speaking at a rally in his support at Atherley, Progressive Conservative candidate Bill Scott told Victoria - Haliburton Riding supporters that the Liberal administration's record was a succession of dismal failures.

"Look at what they have done to Mr. and Mrs. Canadian Taxpayer alone," he suggested. "Bedevilled by the consequences of over-spending, the Liberals tried to foist an additional five percent income tax on the nation's productive wage-earners. They didn't succeed in this but they did manage to impose an additional three percent which, added to high interest rates, spiralling living costs, and a general runaway inflation, didn't win them any friends."

"Do you realize," Mr. Scott asked, "that from March 1966 to March 1968, a married man with two dependents earning $5,000 per year had his income tax upped by approximately 78 percent?"

"That is a fact — an indisputable fact even by those who would conceal the facts . . . in March 1966, a married man with two dependents was paying $205 per year in income tax. By March 1968, this had risen to $376."

"And they (the Liberals) talk about national unity — 'national disunity' is the goal they were more apt to achieve if they were allowed to pursue their spend-thrift ways and pick the pockets of already overburdened taxpayers."

FARM POLICY

"It is very interesting to me," Mr. Scott went on to say, "that after another term of office in which the farming industry (along with other industries) was virtually ignored, the Liberals are now asking for a new term on the grounds that they recognize the sorry plight of the Canadian farmer. This is hindsight if ever I came across it. We, the Progressive Conservative Party, have always had the interest of the farmer at heart and our farm policies in the past have resulted in success. Not so with the Liberals. We now find the nation's wheat bins overflowing and no market in sight . . . This with another bumper western wheat crop in the making. We have the ability to find markets for this wheat and we also have an eight-point program (a workable one) for the Eastern farmer who has been almost totally neglected by the Liberals."

UNEMPLOYMENT

"There has been so much in the press about increasing unemployment in Canada that I hardly need remind you of the seriousness of this situation. However, when you see unemployment increasing in an inflationary period, I feel justified in suggesting that we cannot ignore the danger to national welfare and unity which this presents. There was no mention of unemployment in any Liberal policies or programs, the situation apparently generating 'massive lack of concern' at the Federal Government level."

NATIONAL UNITY

"My leader is, I firmly believe, more concerned with 'National Unity' than Trudeau and Company can ever be. On the one hand, in Progressive Conservative Leader Stanfield we have a man who, as Prime Minister, would suggest: 'Come, let us reason together'. In Mr. Trudeau we find the exact opposite of the reasonableness which alone can lead to national unity . . . He says, in effect, 'My will be done'."

YOUR CHOICE

"Next week you will have a choice to make . . . June 25 is election day — I urge you to vote Progressive Conservative because conservative moderate thinking is needed to bring this country up off its economic knees and put it back on its feet again."

Revenue Minister Optimistic For Canada's Economic Future

A balanced Federal budget, lower unemployment and general increased prosperity were among features of a rosy prospect for Canada during the remainder of the year painted by Finance Minister E. J. Benson on Thursday night, June 6.

At a press conference, accompanied by Dave Logan, Liberal candidate for Victoria - Haliburton, at the Liberal Committee Rooms in Lindsay Mr. Benson stressed that higher interest rates and inflation were the two most important problems in Canada today, but that they could be solved.

Inflation — the cost price squeeze, as Mr. Benson put it — could only be eliminated by a concerted effort by all levels of government and the people, he said.

Canadians have been trying to take out of the economy more in terms of personal benefits than increased productivity within the economy could justify, he said, and this has contributed to the rise in inflation.

Despite this, the gross national product — the total value of all goods and services provided in Canada during a year — rose to 50% in the past five years and net disposable income increased twice as fast as the cost of living. "I would like to say the Canadian is very strong. The general outlook is very good."

He claimed there would be an eight per cent increase in GNP this year and termed this "substantially better" than last year. Less than four per cent would be in price increases.

Foreign trade is up 14% during the first three months of this year compared to the same period last year, he said, while unemployment is at the lowest point since 1956 except for the "boom years" of 1965-66. The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment across the nation was 4.2%.

Mr. Benson said figures supplied by former Finance Minister Mitchell Sharp in the last session of Parliament would bring the government to within $80 million of achieving a balanced budget on an expenditure of $10.3 billion for the year.

"It is our intention to have a balanced budget during the coming year", he said.

The current difficulty in the Canadian housing market should also be at least partially solved by the construction of 175,000 units across the country this year. He felt the industry would reach the target of 585,000 units set by the Economic Council of Canada for 1970 "without difficulty".

"We have ample money for low rental housing . . . land assemble . . . urban renewal."

Interest rates on Canadian loans are not really determined strictly in this country, he admitted, due to a free flow of capital among western nations and especially the United States.

If the United States government successfully passes new tax legislation which has been before Congress for two years it will be able to finance the greater part of the Vietnam war cost from taxation sources instead of borrowing on the money market, he said.

This means about $20 billion will be left on the market which would lead to a lowering of interest rates here.

The Canadian dollar on the international market was stronger than ever, he said. Figures published by the Bank of Canada indicated Federal reserves were $140 million above the ceiling of $2.5 billion required by an agreement with the U.S.

Canada also had a $600 million credit with the U.S. export-import bank which was not touched during the recent financial crisis.

A $500,000,000 bond issue placed on the market by the government recently was oversubscribed by $25 million a day later, which, he said, indicated the strength of the Canadian dollar.

After the press conference, Mr. Benson and Mr. Logan mingled with a crowd of 200 people, and discussed many of the local problems as was possible in the time that Mr. Benson had at his disposal.

Hylanders Gain Win
Over Wilberforce

Another victory was gained for the Haliburton Hylanders Softball Club when they played Wilberforce last Thursday evening, June 13.

The first run of the game was scored in the third inning by the Wilberforce team, and they again scored in the fourth inning making it 2-0 for Wilberforce.

The Hylanders proved once more that they can come back as, by a great team effort and excellent pitching by Craig Stamp, they held the opposing team from scoring more runs.

The Hylanders scored two runs in the fifth inning which made it a 2-2 tie, and they went to the end of the seventh inning that way. The game went into the eighth inning, and then the Hylanders added two more runs to end the game with a 4-2 score for the Hylanders.

Congratulations to Wilberforce for making this such a good contest.

NEWS NOTES

On Friday evening last a Bridal Shower was given at the United Church in honour of Miss Marie Dewey. The first part of the evening was spent in laughing, provoking contests and then came the most important part of the evening, the unwrapping of the gifts. They were many, beautiful and useful, and also some mirth-provoking ones from a mysterious friend. A delicious lunch was served, bringing a very pleasant evening to a close.

On Saturday evening a Farewell Party was held at the Pentecostal Church in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pitts. A pleasant evening was spent but there was an overtone of sadness at the thought of losing a much-loved Pastor and his wife. They will be sadly missed by the whole community. They will be taking up their new duties in Quebec. Mr. Craig Pitts will be in charge of the work here in Gooderham, and will capably carry on. The Church is fortunate to have such a gifted young man.

On Sunday morning Mr. Pitts preached his final service to a large congregation. The theme of his message was "The Partnership of the Pulpit and the Pew". It was a very challenging and moving sermon. Mr. Pitts expressed his appreciation of the faithfulness and dedication of all his people, especially the ones that held offices. Three very lovely special musical numbers were sung during the course of the service by the Pitts'. There were a goodly number of visitors present, including Mr. Pitts' Mother, Father and Brothers, his Grandparents and other close friends. A group from the United Church came to express their good will. Mr. and Mrs. James Ward of Haliburton were among the guests. Mr. Pitts said the verse that they had used as their guide in their decision, which was: "Hither to hath the Lord helped us". He went on to say "therefore I shall endure all things for the elect's sake that Quebec may also have the Salvation which is from the Lord". The prayers and good wishes of all go with them to their new field.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge Hunter travelled to Niagara Falls, New York to visit Mr. Hunter's sister, Mrs. Max Spilnaar, who has been seriously ill in hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Madill spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Madill.

Mrs. Bob Fotheringham is confined to her home. Her friends hope that she will soon be much improved in health.

Misses Vaneita and Christena Pickens of Whitby and Mr. James Pickens and lady friend of Toronto spent the weekend at their respective parents' homes.

Urge Canadians For Mandate

A French-Canadian speaking in support of Bill Scott last Friday night in Bancroft strongly urged Canadians to give a Conservative government a clear mandate on Tuesday, June 25.

The appeal was made by the Hon. Fern Guindon, Provincial Member for Stormont and Minister without Portfolio.

"For the good of Canada — for the good of our nation — make sure we have a Conservative government after June 25", he urged.

Mr. Guindon intimated that Ontario simply cannot go along with the Liberal government which has been in Ottawa the last few years. "that is why we are working so hard to get rid of it!"

Looking ahead, the speaker predicted that should Mr. Trudeau form the next government friction between Quebec and the rest of Canada would mount as the Prime Minister and Premier Johnson of Quebec came to grips. "We don't want a split nation — two countries within a country — but rather Canadian unity which is so essential to national welfare."

"Why are so many former Liberal stalwarts — Winters, Martin and others — not seeking re-election?" he asked. "Why couldn't two Liberal Cabinet Ministers even get nominated as candidates?"

"I believe," Mr. Guindon went on to say, "that many Liberal supporters are unhappy, doubtful and afraid of the Liberal Party under the leadership of Pierre Elliott Trudeau, who was so recently a self-declared socialist."

"The Liberal government has shown an absolute lack of leadership on the two main issues confronting Canada — national unity and the nation's economy.

Variety Concert Coming Up

On Saturday, June 22 at 8 p.m. the residents of this area will have the opportunity of treating themselves to yet another "enchanted evening" of music and dramatic entertainment as the Madrigal Singers, under the direction of their talented leader Mrs. Norman Finney, present the second of their spring Variety Concerts.

Their first concert of this season recently presented at Minden attracted the largest and most enthusiastic audience ever to attend an event of this kind at the Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home; and this concert, which will take place in the Christian Education Centre at Carnarvon's Zion United Church, promises to be another outstanding success.

The program will feature several fine choral works by the Madrigal Choir, solo numbers by Miss Glenda Burke, Miss Margie Fawns, Mrs. Marion Kinsman, Mr. Brian Dean and Mr. Rex Metcalfe, and two selections by the Kinsman Sisters — including the lovely "Japanese Fantasy" with songs from "The Mikado", specially requested after the excellent performance given at the Minden concert. Miss Kathleen Owens, regular accompanist for the Madrigal Singers, will be the pianist for the concert.

An added feature will be the hilarious "Skit on the CBC-TV", with a girls' drama group, under the direction of Miss Jane Misener.

So plan on an evening of fine entertainment, and bring your friends out to see and hear this delightful program of music and drama. Admission is .75c, and advance tickets are now available ed to see a white squirrel in a tree near her home.

Mr. James B. Cooper, one of Haliburton's first Realtors to obtain a plane to be used in his work as a Realtor, recently made use of the services of Air Canada. On Wednesday, June 12, 1968 he flew to Frankfurt in Germany and returned on Sunday, June 16, with an offer accepted by his client in Germany for property valued at over $75,000.00. Jim Cooper has never been one to let the grass grow under his feet, and it never fails to amaze a person how quickly one can go to and from any place in the world in a matter of a few days.

Curry, Mrs. Gerald Dawson, Bruce Henry, John P. Hill, Ray W. Hyde, Sidney Jennings, Mrs. Richard Kirkwood, Mervyn Roberston, John K. Smith, Arthur Ward, Kenneth Wilson and Carman Wright.
